The California Historical Society Quarterly

A finely printed and illustrated journal containing new and authoritative material in the field of California and Western History. It is the official organ of the

CALIFORNIA HISTORICAL SOCIETY
2090 Jackson Street
San Francisco 9, California

MANUEL P. SERVIN, Editor DONALD C. BIGGS, Director

A cumulative analytical Index to the first thirty-five volumes of the Quarterly has been prepared by Dr. Edwin H. Carpenter.

The Society is a non-profit institution founded in 1852 and incorporated in 1886, devoted to collecting, preserving and distributing information relating to the history of California and the American West. A gallery and library are maintained at the Society's headquarters. In addition to the Quarterly, the Society publishes monthly Notes and finely printed books. Membership, which includes subscription to the Quarterly, the Notes and 20% discount on most hard-cover publications, is open to all in the following categories: Active, $15.00; Student, $5.00; Sustaining, $25.00; Patron, $100.00; Associate (business firms), $100.00.

The Society is supported solely by the dues and contributions of its members.
